Cohen Veterans Network - Quick Summary (as of March 5, 2018)

The Cohen Veterans Network publicly launched in April 2016 and currently has seven Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinics in operation: Dallas, San Antonio, and El Paso TX; Fayetteville, N.C.; Washington, D.C.; Philadelphia; and New York. Each clinic is focused on providing client-centered, customized, outpatient mental health care to veterans and military families.

Three more clinics are slated to open in early 2018: Denver, Killeen, TX, and Clarksville, TN. Another round of expansion is scheduled before the close of the year.

Current results:

- Cohen Clinics have treated more than 5,300 clients across the country from April 2016 to date.
- Among all of our clients, women represent 47% of the population. Among just veteran clients, women make up 26% of the group. This percentage is two times the size of the female veteran population in the United States.
  - The average age of our male veteran clients is 42, the average age of our female veterans is 39.
- The network is treating the entire military family as 43% of our clients are non-veterans. We are treating parents, siblings, spouses or partners, children, caretakers, and others.

Recent client satisfaction scores:

- Among clients surveyed in late 2017, 93% reported after treatment that they could now “effectively deal with my problems,” while 97% would recommend our clinics to a veteran, family member, or friend.
- The vast majority (96%) of CVN clients report “getting a first appointment as soon as they wanted it.”
