Cohen Veterans Network Announces Plans for New Mental Health Clinic in San Diego

CVN will bring tailored, evidence-based treatment to area veterans to help reduce epidemic of veteran suicide

San Diego, CA. March 13, 2018 – More than 306,000 post-9/11 California veterans will soon be able to receive customized life-saving mental health care at no or low-cost statewide through The Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Veterans Village of San Diego. This new location is expected to open this fall and will also serve veterans and their families statewide through CVN Telehealth Services.

The expected wait between first contact and a first appointment at a Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic is less than one week. For anyone in crisis, the Cohen Clinic will schedule same day appointments. In person and telehealth treatment is available for a variety of mental health issues including depression, anxiety, PTSD, adjustment issues, anger, grief & loss, family issues, transitional challenges, relationship problems, and child behavioral problems.

“Access to care is our number one priority at the Cohen Veterans Network,” said CVN President & CEO Dr. Anthony Hassan. “We are thrilled to bring high-quality care to such a vibrant military community as San Diego. By partnering with Veterans Village, we will come into San Diego to work collaboratively with local community providers to make the greatest impact and save lives, marriages, and futures.”

ABOUT THE COHEN VETERANS NETWORK

The Cohen Veterans Network is a 501(c)(3) national non-profit, clinically integrated mental health system for post-9/11 veterans and their families. CVN focuses on improving mental health outcomes, with a goal to build a network of outpatient mental health clinics for veterans and their families in high-need communities, in which trained clinicians deliver holistic evidence-based care to treat mental health conditions.
