Cohen Veterans Network Announces New Operating Partner in Fayetteville, NC

Longtime Partner Centerstone will Take Over Operations of the Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic in Fayetteville by Year-end

Stamford, CT., August 20, 2020 – Cohen Veterans Network (CVN) and Cape Fear Valley Health System announced today that Centerstone, a national leader in behavioral healthcare, will take over operations of the Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic in Fayetteville. CVN is committed to the Fayetteville community and will be transitioning operations to longtime partner Centerstone by October 31, 2020. During the transition, all clients will continue to receive high-quality care from the clinic, and no client will be without care during the transition.

“We are excited to bring the national presence and expertise of Centerstone to the Fayetteville community,” said Dr. Anthony Hassan, CVN President and CEO. “We value Cape Fear Valley and their commitment to the veteran and military family community and will work together to ensure a smooth transition.”

“We are proud to have opened one of the first Cohen Clinics in the nation in 2017 and look forward to the transition. Centerstone is a highly respected provider of mental health services,” said Mike Nagowski, CEO of Cape Fear Valley. “We will work closely with CVN on a smooth transition and look forward to continuing to serve this community - as we have for more than 60 years - as the preferred healthcare provider for thousands of families from Fayetteville, Fort Bragg, Cumberland County, and beyond.”

The Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Centerstone will remain at the current clinic location - 3505 Village Drive in Fayetteville.

Cohen Veterans Network remains committed to the more than 100,000 post 9/11 veterans and military family members in the Fayetteville area. To date, we have treated more than 1,300 clients in the market. Centerstone has worked as a partner since 2018 and operates the Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinics in Clarksville, TN, and Jacksonville, FL.

“We are honored to operate a third Cohen Clinic,” said Dr. Bob Vero, CEO at Centerstone. “We look forward to becoming part of the fabric of the Fayetteville community and delivering the highest quality mental health care for our veterans and military families.”

About Cohen Veterans Network: Cohen Veterans Network is a 501(c)(3) national nonprofit, clinically integrated mental health system for post-9/11 veterans and their families.
