The Latest on Cohen Veterans Network (October 17, 2022)

Cohen Veterans Network (CVN) is a not-for-profit philanthropic organization that serves post-9/11 veterans, service members and their families through a nationwide system of mental health clinics. The network publicly launched in April 2016. View the current map of 22 Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinics.

Current results across the network

- Cohen Clinics have delivered care to over 45,000 clients across the country from April 2016 to date.
- The network is treating the entire military family: approximately 47% of our clients are non-veterans. We are treating parents, siblings, spouses or partners, children, caretakers, and others. While approximately 53% of all clients are veterans or active duty.
- Among all clients, women represent 53% of the population. Among just veteran clients, women make up about 30% of the group. This percentage is more than two times the size of the female veteran population in the United States.

Clinics without walls

Nearly all mental healthcare being delivered through the COVID-19 outbreak has been online via CVN Telehealth, face-to-face video therapy.

- The network has provided nearly 53,000 Telehealth sessions thus far in 2022 (Jan. 1 through Sept. 30, 2022).
- In 2021, we delivered over 90,000 telehealth sessions (over 88% of all care).
- More than 65,000 telehealth sessions were delivered in 2020.
